Pulling up a Seat at our Savior's Table
Jesus at a Meal with Many John 6:25-35

Some thoughts to remember and questions to ponder:

"Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy?" (A question from Isaiah 55:2)

"Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you."
(Counsel from Jesus - Jn. 6:27a)

Point to Ponder: Examine your life. What busies you? For what are you striving? Does that for which you strive satisfy deeply or leave you wanting? Have you received the food which Jesus said he will give (see Jn. 6:27 - above)?

"I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty."
(Jesus in Jn. 6:35)

"Thou hast made us for thyself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it finds its rest in thee." (Augustine in the Confessions)

Point to Ponder: We were made for Jesus and belong to Him (Col. 1:16; 1 Cor. 6:19b-20a). It makes sense then, that when we pursue things apart from Him we will be left wanting. Could this help to explain some of the deep-seated dissatisfaction we know in our lives?

Next Week: We will continue our sermon series by joining our savior at a meal at Mary and Martha's house. Our text will be Luke 10:38-42.
