Point to Ponder: Even in a confusing world, we can trust the same God who has given us a Word worthy of costly witness. We can trust Him to care for us to the end He has already determined. Where might you need to exercise that trust?

Disclaimer: Too often studies of Revelation among believers become mired in simply defending our own interpretive framework. We use words like “preterist, futurist, historicist, and idealist.” We pile on prefaces (pre, post, and a) to define our view on the millennium. I have my own view on these subjects, yet I will strive to preach this series from the book of Revelation with no agenda to convince you of my view. While the careful listener may be able to guess my viewpoint, my hope in this study is to proclaim truths that all who love the scriptures can affirm.

Next Week: We will be looking at Revelation 9:13-21 as we consider the question: The Trumpets - How Bad are People Really?
