Journeying Home:
Celebrating our Lord's Deliverance
Psalm 124

Question: What memory could sustain us in the face of potential dangers in this world? What event in the past, could possibly be big enough to shape how we look at our future?

I. The Greatness of Their Danger (1-5)

II. The Greatness of Their Deliverance (6-7)

III. The Greatness of Their God (8)

IV. The Greatness of Our: Danger, Deliverance, and God

Point to Ponder: The Psalmist called God's people to remember God's deliverance in the past. How might we call each other to remember God's ultimate act of deliverance - rescuing us from the coming wrath (I Thess. 1:10) through the life, death and resurrection of His Son Jesus? How might we do that better as a church, as an individual, in our families, in our own lives?

Next Week: Join us next week for our Missions Weekend. David Ingersoll will be preaching during worship using Exodus 34:4-8 & Matthew 6:5-13 as his text.
