

Advent of Our Lord
In Whom will we Trust?
Psalm 146

I. A Call to Praise the Lord (vs.1-2 & 10)

II. Why We are Foolish to Trust in Princes (vs. 3-4)

III. Why We are Blessed when we Trust in the Lord (vs. 5-7a)

IV. Seven Acts of the Lord for Seven Groups (vs. 7b-9)

“Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.” And he who was seated on the throne said, ‘Behold, I am making all things new... Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.’” (Revelation 21:3b-5)

Point to Ponder:

If we use the groups mentioned in vs. 8-9 as metaphors, then each of us have known something of brokenness in this world. Which of the pictures offered in this list enflames your heart the most in regard to a longing for our Lord’s Advent?

Next Week: On the Fourth Sunday of Advent we will continue our series entitled Advent of our Lord by considering the text of Psalm 96 To Sing a New Song.
