

Following Peter
To Experience the Expansiveness of the Gospel
Acts 10:1-45

Question: The gospel is good news for me (and people like me), but is that all?

I. A Vision in Caesarea (1-8)

II. A Vision in Joppa (9-23a)

III. An Unlikely Meeting: A Roman Centurion and a Jewish Disciple (23b-33)

IV. Their Worlds are Transformed by a Gospel for All Nations (34-45)

Point to Ponder: If our world has been expanded by God's global mission (to gather a forever-people for himself from all nations), it would likely show up in our prayer life. For what are we beseeching God? Is it all about my/our life going well, or are our prayers informed by God's mission?

Next Week: Next Sunday we will continue our sermon series entitled Following Peter by considering Acts 12:1-17 'To See God Work in the Face of Opposition.'
