

A Witness to His Coming: (Mind the Gap)

Mary

Luke 1:26-37, 2:1-7, 19

Question: Do we mind the gaps of greatest significance in our life?

I. The Seemingly Unbelievable Announcement (Lk. 1:26-37)

II. The Seemingly Unbelievable Fulfillment (Lk. 2:1-7,19)

III. The Seemingly Unbelievable Gap We face

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (Jn.3:16).

God made him who had not sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (2 Cor. 5:21)

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom. 8:38-39)

If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raise him from the dead, you will be saved. (Rom. 10:9)

Point to Ponder: Have I minded the gap between life and death, between me and God? If not, would you be willing to consider that with someone who has?

Next Week: We will continue our Advent Sermon Series – A Witness to His Coming - by considering Luke 2:8-18, 20 'Shepherds and Angels.'

We exist to glorify God by enabling all people to become fully devoted followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. We prayerfully strive, through the Holy Spirit, to fulfill our purpose by worship, Biblical teaching, service, fellowship, and active involvement in world evangelization.
